the ship. And here I found a fresh renewing of my grief; for I saw evidently, that if we had kept on board, we had been all safe—that is to say, we had all got safe on shore[a] and

I had not been so miserable as to be left entirely destitute of all comfort and company „ as I now was. This forced tears from my eyes again; but as there was little relief in that, I resolved if possible to get to the ship;
